

Do you have a story to share?

Have you always wanted to make a film that matters?

Deptford Storytelling Project 2020

Become part of a multilingual community film-making project in Deptford.

DEPTFORD CINEMA

language acts and worldmaking

Goldsmiths
UNIVERSITY OF LONDON

Deptford Storytelling Project is funded by Language Acts and Worldmaking.

It is run in partnership with

Deptford Cinema, Goldsmiths, University of London and the Albany.

This is for you

This film project celebrates Deptford's rich history and vibrant and diverse community.

All ages, languages, backgrounds

– including those learning English.

Subtitles will be used to reflect the value that multilingualism brings for the community.

A personal story or across generations

The choice is yours. We welcome both new filmmakers and those with experience.

Free support workshops

Attend workshops to get digital media skills and to develop your ideas for your short digital film. These are free once you have committed to the project.

These 3-hour film workshops at the start of 2020:

11 January 2020	Deptford Cinema	Introductory workshop on the filmmaking project
18 January 2020	The Albany	Pre-production workshop on storyboarding and scripting
01 February 2020	Deptford Lounge	Production workshop and filming
08 February 2020	Goldsmiths, University of London	Post-production workshop on editing
07 March 2020	Deptford Cinema	A celebratory screening of your films

To find out more

Meet us in the foyer of Deptford Lounge at any time from 4.00–6.00pm, Thursday 28 November 2019

Deptford Lounge

9 Giffin Street
Deptford
London SE8 4RJ

Contact

v.macleroy@gold.ac.uk
Work: 0207 919 7351

Project Directors

Jim Anderson
Vicky Macleroy
Lucy Rogers